Boston July 6th 1837

Dear Aunt Mary

Anne met Susan Tufts this morning, who offered to take out a letter, so I thought I would give you the latest intelligence which is not much. Anne & I are going to Cambridge this afternoon, to see the Marshs & the Ames's. I suppose that Anne wrote you that Elizabeth is there. David Marsh spent the morning of the 4th with us. Miss Nancy Polsom and called yesterday. & the last of the week, she is to make a visit at Cambridge. When I got in town I found that Father Bonne was to deliver the lecture at Salem St & Woodbury having refused

I would not go to hear him. In the evening I went out on the Common, the first time I was ever out there up on such a night: I had an excellent time. The fire works were beautiful. Don't you begin to repent that you did not go to Hanover? They had a most excellent time there. Anne saw Stanton at the rooms & he said that they raised $150 for the National & $20 for the Mass. Catherine Beecher, or rather the review of it is to come out to-morrow. Stanton has gone to New York. Lucy has gone to Newton, much to her mothers delight. Our quarter is out at the end of this week, but the vacation does not begin till a fortnight or three weeks later Chany wants you to tell her mother of this.

When I got into Boston the 4th I did not want to have you

I would not go to hear him. In the evening I went out on the Common, the first time I was ever out there up on such a night: I had an excellent time. The fire works were beautiful. Don't you begin to repent that you did not go to Hanover? They had a most excellent time there. Anne Swan & Stanton at the rooms & he said that they raised $150 for the National & 20 for the Mass. Catherine Beecher, or rather the review of it is to come out to-morrow. Stanton has gone to New York. Lizzy has gone to Newton, much to her mothers delight. Our quarter is out at the end of this week, but the vacation does not begin till a fortnight or three weeks later Chany wants you to tell her mother of this.

When I got into Boston the 4th I did not want to have you

Boston July 6th 1837.

Dear Aunt Mary

Anne met Susan Tufts this morning, who offered to take out a letter, so I thought I would give you the latest intelligence which is not much. Anne & I are going to Cambridge this afternoon, to see the Marshes & the Avens's. I suppose that Anne wrote you that Elizabeth is there. David Mack spent the morning of the 4th with us. Miss Nancy Polk Mack and called yesterday. & the last of the week, she is to make a visit at Cambridge. When I got in town I found that Father Bonne was to deliver the lecture at Salem St & Woodbury having refused

Ms. A.9.2.9, 45